

Programme for WPS summer garden party: Poetry Reading
At Southside House
On Sunday 22 July at 5.0pm

Juan Tafur, poet and philosopher will read his translation of Morada al Sur II/ Abode in the South by Aurelio Arturo and his own poem Adios de Los Muertos/ Farewell of the Dead, (fragments).

Ann Vaughan-Williams will read from her poetry collection The Lines We Trace published in 2018:

My Ayah
Mirroring
Earthed
Walled Garden

Also two verses from The Garden by Andrew Marvell and An Awful Tempest by Emily Dickinson

Rosanne Gomez, published in Sri Lanka and in the UK, will read her own poems:

How to Accept Sympathy
Shadows
Temptation
Padura

She will read an excerpt from the Dhamanapada and Life by George Herbert

Ben Westerby. RADA student and 2nd in national Poetry by Heart competition will read:

Sonny's Lettah by Linton Kwesi-Johnson
Run Black Man Run by Daniel Beatty
You are Old Father William by Lewis Carroll

Leslie Dighton will close the session with an excerpt from The Love Song of J Alfred Prufrock by TS Eliot