

WPS Summer Garden Party 2022

The summer garden party held on Sunday 26 June was attended by 30 people. There was sunshine and accompanying wind. Val and Chris Morrison generously provided their garden and Val also produced mouth-watering home-made cakes. Poetry and Prose to the theme of 'Journeys' was read to an attentive audience by Ewa Cobham, Veronika Marsh, Mary Owusu-Hirsch, Roland Rogers and Ann Vaughan-Williams. There were additional poems from the floor from Leslie Dighton and Alan Paul. Books were available from the authors. Wine was provided by the committee and delicious elderflower cordial made by Michael Collins. In crowning glory, Roland Rogers printed and collated a booklet 'Journeys' which contained the poems and prose and was distributed to members of the society before the event. This was a wonderfully social occasion, steered by our chairman Ed Nanno.

Ann Vaughan-Williams